3. It is well settled that such matters fall within the policy/making domain of the Executive, and unless the policy is shown to be arbitrary, discriminatory or unconstitutional, this Court cannot substitute its wisdom for that of the Government.

4. Hon'ble Supreme Court in its several decisions held that Court should not interfere in policy matters except on certain limited grounds, namely:

(a) State of Himachal Pradesh and Others vs. Himachal Pradesh Nizi Vyavsayik Prishikshan Kendra Sangh, reported in (2011) 6 SCC 597 in which it is held that Courts are not intended to and should not substitute their views in the views of the Executive in policy matters;

(b) BALCO Employees' Union (Regd.) vs. Union of India and Others, reported in (2002) 2 SCC 333 in which it is held that unless a policy decision is arbitrary, mala fide or contrary to statutory provisions, Courts cannot interfere;

(c) Narmada Bachao Andolan vs. Union of India and Others, reported in (2000) 10 SCC 664 in which it is held that Courts should not examine the wisdom or correctness of policy choices.

5. The aforementioned principles are evident that the decision whether or not to establish a Panchayat Sarkar Bhawan in a particular Panchayat is a matter of Governmental policy based on various socio-economic factors. The Court cannot issue a mandamus compelling the State to deviate from its policy framework.

6. In the light of aforementioned discussions, writ petition is dismissed, with liberty to the petitioner to make a detailed representation to the competent authority, who will consider the same in accordance with law and Government policy.

7. Perusal of the representation, the petitioner is seeking Panchayat Sarkar Bhawan to be constructed in particular plot or area. Citizens cannot decide Panchayat Sarkar Bhawan is required to be constructed in which place or spot. On the other hand, State Government has evolved policy for the purpose of construction of Panchayat Sarkar Bhawan. Therefore, the petitioner can seek only for construction of Panchayat Sarkar Bhawan in the relevant Panchayat. The concerned authority is hereby directed to consider the representation of the petitioner which is annexed at Annexure-P/3 to the writ petition.
